

2019 MCDONALD'S KANGA CUP INFORMATION GUIDE

THE MCDONALD'S KANGA CUP

The McDonald's Kanga Cup is the biggest international youth football tournament in the Southern Hemisphere and one of the top five tournaments of its kind in the world!

The McDonald's Kanga Cup strives towards its philosophy and mission "Uniting the Youth of the World through Football" and as such the tournament provides an opportunity for participants to meet players from all over Australia as well as overseas. Past international teams have been from Fiji, South Africa, Korea, Georgia, England, New Zealand, the United States of America, Chinese Taipei and many more.

The 2019 McDonald's Kanga Cup will be held over six days, from 7 – 12th July in Canberra, Australia's capital city.

The McDonald's Kanga Cup had humble beginnings, starting in 1991 in Sydney before moving to its new home of Canberra in 1993. The inaugural Kanga Cup had just 35 teams participate; the 2018 edition had over 350 teams take part, seeing 5500 participants from Australia and overseas meet in Canberra for a week of football, culture, fun and friendship like no other.

With previous editions of the McDonald's Kanga Cup reaching capacity, it is important to register for the 2019 McDonald's Kanga Cup as soon as possible. Registrations will be opening soon and we have already had interest from a number of international teams, so if you would like to test yourself against teams from all around Australia and the world, this is your chance!

DISCOVER OUR NATION'S CAPITAL

Australia's McDonald's Kanga Cup capital, Canberra, is a destination on the rise. From famed national attractions to foodie hotspots and spectacular natural surrounds – Canberra has something for everyone.

While Canberra may be the political hub of the nation, this young, modern capital city is the place to discover Australia's stories through national attractions that hold and share the essence of Australia. The capital offers visitors a perfect blend of arts and culture, outdoor activities plus family friendly attractions, such as Questacon – The National Science and Technology Centre, to both entertain and educate children.

See how Australia's elite athletes train at the Australian Institute of Sport, marvel at the largest collection of Australian Indigenous art in the world at the National Gallery of Australia, visit one of the world's great museums – the moving Australian War Memorial and discover the place where Australia's stories live at the National Museum of Australia.

The city, with a population of 384,000 people, is designed around Lake Burley Griffin, a man-made lake popular with cyclists, walkers and joggers, and is an easy 2.5 hour drive to both the pristine South Coast of New South Wales and the scenic Snowy Mountains.

Canberra has a vibrant foodie scene, with popular dining and entertainment precincts located in the city centre, Braddon, Manuka, Kingston and Dickson. Braddon's Lonsdale Street and the New Acton precincts are fast becoming hipster hot spots, with an eclectic mix of wine bars, restaurants, and cool coffee shops.

EXTRA TIME & FINALS

There will be no extra time played in any Group Stage Matches. Should scores be equal at the conclusion of a Championship Series Match, extra time shall be played in accordance with the following;

U9 – U11: 5 min each way

U12 – U18: 10 min each way

If at the end of extra time, scores are still drawn, alternate kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken to determine the winner.

DISPENSATION

The process regarding applying for dispensations can be found on the McDonald's Kanga Cup Website

Under Age – Clubs wishing to have players play more than two years above their birth year must make a formal request on club letterhead containing relevant documentation.

Over Age players – A team wishing to play a player in an age group below his/her birth year must submit grounds for request in writing on club letterhead to the KCOC

Relative Age Effect (RAE) – Players whose birthdates fall in the last three months of the year may be eligible to play for a team in the age group below their birth year and be given status as an RAE player

Player loans – A team may borrow up to three players from another club/s within their association to make up team numbers. Teams wishing to borrow players from another club will be required to seek approval from the KCOC in writing on signed club letterhead, with written permission from the player's usual club releasing them for the duration of the tournament.

ACCREDITATION & PROOF OF AGE

All registered players and officials will receive tournament identification in the form of wristbands for players and accreditation passes for officials. These passes will provide access to all matches, special events and special deals (e.g. discounts).

Player wristbands must be worn at all times for the duration of the tournament, and any broken ones must be brought into headquarters when seeking a replacement.

All players in the tournament will be required to carry some form of photo ID (e.g. Student Card) at all matches. An ID template is available on the website for players who do not already possess one.

SANCTIONING AND INSURANCE

Australian teams – All Australian teams must include a letter of sanction from their Member Federation to fulfil the protocols involved with visiting another part of the Australian Football Family. Letters of sanction need to state that registered participants of the travelling team are covered by the Member Federation's insurance. Please check with your Member Federation that this is the case. We strongly encourage participants to also take out personal sports injury/private health insurance.

International teams – entry to the McDonald's Kanga Cup is only available to an affiliated club of a member of an international Football Association affiliated with FIFA or a school. All international teams must include a letter of sanction from their National Football Association (or school) to fulfil the protocols involved with visiting another part of the International Football Family. International teams must also have proof of travel insurance to cover personal accident or injury.

GALA DAY: THURSDAY 11TH JULY

Registered teams are mixed up to create new teams to take part in matches. Individuals are able to register and will be added into teams. Teams will change throughout the day to give players the chance to play with other people as well.

Fun friendly games are played with the aim of providing a chance to meet new players and enjoy a day of football with players from other states. Games will be 20 minutes in length – 2 x 10 minute halves.

Teams participating in the AWD competition are automatically registered for the gala day, and teams wishing to just enter the gala day will be charged $10/player to cover insurance.

Any individuals registering for just the Gala Day will also be charged $10/player.

TOURNAMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

This code of behaviour is applicable to all players, referees, coaches, managers and officials registered and involved in the McDonald's Kanga Cup competitions. Any breach to this Code of Conduct will be subject to disciplinary action by the McDonald's Kanga Cup Disputes & Disciplinary Committee and Capital Football. By registering your team, you are agreeing to the conditions on behalf of your team.

- a) All players, coaches, managers and club officials are to play the game in a spirit of fair play, accepting of the referee's decision and abiding by the Laws of the Game.
- b) All players, coaches, managers and club officials must not, during the course of, or after a match, under the jurisdiction of Capital Football, abuse or address a Referee or Assistant Referee in an insulting or offensive manner.
- c) All players, coaches, managers, club officials and referees must not engage in violent acts, verbal abuse, offensive language or behaviour, or acts likely to incite others, including spectators. To engage in such behaviour or any other conduct is detrimental to the spirit and image of the game.
- d) All players, coaches, managers, officials and referees at all times must, while under the control of McDonald's Kanga Cup fixtures, act, dress and behave in public in a manner which does not bring the game or the McDonald's Kanga Cup into disrepute.
- e) All players, coaches, managers, club officials or referees shall not, at any time, make any comment in any publication, whether written, televised or broadcast, which is detrimental to the interests, welfare or image of the McDonald's Kanga Cup and Capital Football.
- f) All players, coaches, managers, club officials or referees shall not, at any time, utilise the image rights of players, officials, referees, spectators, staff and other people that are in the vicinity of authorised McDonald's Kanga Cup activities for whatever purpose without the permission of those whose image is taken.
- g) All managers, coaches and club officials will endeavour to control the behaviour of team supporters to accord with the general principles of the Code of Conduct as detailed herein.
- h) All participants at all times must comply with any reasonable direction, given by any McDonald's Kanga Cup official at any of the playing venues, in respect to behaviour at a match, keeping the playing field clear and in endeavouring to assist officials in maintaining control of spectators and players.
- i) Failure to comply with all or part of the McDonald's Kanga Cup Code of Conduct will be subject to disciplinary as determined by Capital Football or the McDonald's Kanga Cup Disputes & Disciplinary Committee.
